- On October 29, 2024, the Union requested that all negotiations pause until the following year, with negotiations to resume in March 2025. Following that negotiation session, the full Board was briefed at the November 7, 2024, Board of Commissioners meeting, during which an executive session was held to discuss the status of the ongoing negotiations. In subsequent negotiation and budget meetings, the impacts on employees' compensation packages were also discussed. Represented staff elected to forgo a COLA in 2025. Non-represented employees received a CPI adjustment of 3.8%, with the understanding that once the CBAs were ratified and a comparable analysis completed, all employees would receive any resulting difference through a retroactive pay adjustment effective January 1, 2025.
